

DLP #1

1. According to the New York Times, Mickey Mantle legendary center fielder for the New York Yankees ranks among the leading home run hitters in baseball.
2. Some of the most unusual patents ever granted include the following a parakeet diaper, a baby patting machine and a alarm clock, that squirts the sleeper in the face.

DLP #2

1. Alaska nicknamed Seward's Folly by those who thought buying it was foolish was purchased from Russia for about two cents a acre What a bargain.
2. These hard working dogs are most commonly used as guide dogs German shepherds golden retrievers and Labrador retrievers.

DLP #3

1. Thruout history, traveling traders and merchants took home new products, such as tea, spices and fabrics as a matter of fact that's one reason civilizations changed.
2. According to The New York Times, Mickey Mantle legendary center fielder for the New York Yankees ranks among the leading home run hitters in base ball.

DLP #4

1. Some of the most unusual patents ever granted include the following a parakeet diaper, a baby patting machine and a alarm clock, that squirts the sleeper in the face.
2. Alaska nicknamed Seward's Folly by those who thought buying it was foolish was purchased from Russia for about two cents a acre What a bargain.

DLP #5

1. These hard working dogs are most commonly used as guide dogs German shepherds golden retrievers and Labrador retrievers.
2. Pocahontas a Disney movie is about an Native American princess who saved the life of colonist, John Smith, and the 1600s.

DLP #6

1. When asked if life is worth living, did Charles great grandmother really say well it depends upon the liver.
2. General Colin Powell was quoted in the August 21 1995 issue of U.S. News and World Report as saying “We should sacrifice for one another care about one another never be satisfied when anybody in this group is suffering and we can do something about it”.

DLP #7

1. Animals, plants, fungi, protists and monerans these are the 5 groups into which all living things are divided.
2. Bricks, the oldest building material on earth, were probably invented in Egypt home of the pyramids.