

DLP #41

1. Timbuktu Im sure you've herd of it is a really city in the african countrie of Mali.
2. The Raven is the title of a Poem writed by the american author Edgar Allen Poe.

DLP #42

1. Adult male tiggers way about four hundred 20 pounds and is approximately 10 feet long.
2. Quasimodo is the central character in the Hunchback Of Notre Dame. A novel wrote by Victor Hugo.

DLP #43

1. The blues is a kind of sad slow music that developed between african americans in the Southern United States.
2. Cathedrals are large, impressive christion churches. With high arch's domed ceilings and stained glass windows.

DLP #44

1. The use of the term cool to mean something excellent grew in the 1960's.
2. At the turn of the twenty-first century more than fifty % of women age 25 to fifty-four were working outside the home.

DLP #45

1. Johnny appleseed was the nickname of an american pioneer and folk hero. Who's real name is John Chapman.
2. sum scientists believe that our home galaxy the milky way is about 12,000,000,000 years old.

DLP # 46

1. The Civil War came to an end in 1865 when Robert E Lee surrenders to Ulysses S Grant at appomattox Court House in Virginia.
2. Tara and myself learned that a mirage is a optical allusion. Occurs in the dessert, in the artctic, and sometimes above hot pavement.

DLP #47

1. Abraham Lincoln begun the gettysburg address by saying, fourscore and seven years ago, . . .
2. Flourescent light bulbs last thirteen times more long then regular incandescent bulbs.

DLP #48

1. Taiwan is a mountainous island that lies 90 miles off the coast of China in the South China Sea, it is one of the high tech capitals of the world.
2. The Talmud is a collection of Jewish laws, and scholarly interpretations of their meanings, it includes the books of Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy.

DLP #49

1. Some tarantulas live more than 20 years grow large enough to eat small birds. And inject enuf poison into a victim to kill them.
2. Wild tea plants may grow as high as 30 feet but commercial tea plants were pruned to stay about three feet tall.

DLP #50

1. 3,000,000 Americans fought in the Civil War and 600,000 died in it.
2. Abraham Lincoln were the first prominent leader in American History to favor giving woman the right to vote.