

DLP #8

1. My sister in law who is a 4-H leader explained, “Head heart ,hands, and health these are what the four Hs in 4-H stand for.”
2. Manhattan island the smallest County in the United States. It is also the most populous. (ain't that something?)

DLP #9

1. My Uncle learned me that “the t in the expression fit to a tee comes from the T-square.” A tool carpenter’s use to make sure measurements are accurate.
2. The state of Texas has had the following 6 National flags flying over it. Spain France Mexicao the republic of Texas the confederate states of America and the United States of America

DLP #10

1. One of the interesting tidbits we learned in History class (My favorite subject). Is that jeans are a by-product of the gold rush of 1849.
2. George Washington Carver, born a slave during the civil war introduced crop rotation to poor farmers in the rural south, and discovered a lot of uses for peanuts, soybeans and sweet potatoes.

DLP #11

1. In the 1905 Football Season, 18 players were killed, president Theodore Roosevelt established the national collegiate athletic association ncaa to make the game safer.
2. The book of genesis, which is honored by jews, muslims, and christians alike, contains a detailed description of Noah's Ark, the battleship Oregon was built to the same measurements.

DLP #12

1. Whenever aunt Corrie who lives in the western suburbs of Chicago gets asked how to get to lake Michigan, she says drive straight East until you fall in.
2. The song the daring young man on the flying trapeze was written about Jules Leotard, a French trapeze artist, his second claim to fame was the tight fitting garment that was named after him.

DLP #13

1. There are more than 1,000,000 different kinds of insects in the world, they comprise seventy-eight % of all creatures, and together weigh twelve times more than the combined weight of all humans.
2. In crisis that involve injuries to muscles and ligaments, remember the acronym RICE the 4 letters stand for rest, ice, compression, and elevation.