

10 Supreme Court Cases Every Teen Should Know

A team activity

- Two grades
- Team deliverable (pp)
 - Individual deliverable (ma)

K. Duncan | Cary High School

What rights do you have?

- As a team, generate a list of rights you have as minors. List these on a piece of notebook paper. You have 5 minutes.

What rights do you have?

- Choose what you believe are the three most important. Have a team member list those on the board in your team's assigned area.

What rights do you have?

- Does Mr. Bryant have the right to search your backpack?
- Are student athletes required to participate in drug testing?

Now you will learn about the rights of minors in the United States.

What did the Supreme Court cases say?

- Read the case your team has been assigned.
- Complete handout and be ready to present your findings to the rest of the class.
- Bonus points if you find additional information regarding your case. Write down the source and the information on the back of your handout.

What did you learn?

- As each team presents its case, record the information onto your individual handout.
 - As an individual, respond to the post-reading questions.
 - 1st & 3rd period- 1-page reflection one of the questions and a 3-5 sentence response for the other
 - 4th period- 1 paragraph per question
- * Remember to incorporate evidence and use your best writing. This will count as a minor.*
- Finish for homework. The deadline is _____.