DDD #9
Journaling with verbs

"Physically, [Moishe the Beadle] was as awkward as a clown. His waiflike shyness made people smile. As for me, I liked his wide, dreamy eyes, gazing off into the distance. He spoke little. He sang, or rather he chanted, and the few snatches I caught here and there spoke of divine suffering..." (Wiesel 3).

1. Find at least 8 verbs in the passage & write them down.

2. Consider the simile describing Moishe. What do you learn about him from this passage? Can you think of someone that you know that is similar? (real life or fiction is fine)
