

DUNCAN'S DAILY DRILL

Week 4

DDD #12

pronouns & passages- Identify 15 pronouns in the excerpt.

I stood petrified. What had happened to me? My father had just been struck in front of me, and I had not even blinked. I had watched and kept silent. Only yesterday, I would have dug my nails into this criminal's flesh. Had I changed that much? So fast? Remorse began to gnaw at me. All I could think was: I shall never forgive them for this. My father must have guessed my thoughts because he whispered in my ear (Wiesel 39).

In the barracks, the Jews are stripped and shaved, disinfected with gasoline, showered, and dressed in prison uniforms. A Nazi officer lectured and told them that they have two options: hard work or the crematorium. When Eliezer's father asks for the bathroom, he is beaten by the Kapo (a head prisoner in charge of the other inmates) Eliezer is appalled at his own failure to defend his father.

Verbs & passages- identify the verbs & label as action or linking

We remained in Auschwitz for three weeks. We had nothing to do. We slept a lot. In the afternoon and at night.

Our one goal was to avoid the transports, to stay here as long as possible. It wasn't difficult; it was enough never to sign up as a skilled worker. The unskilled were kept until the end (Wiesel 44).

Journal / quickwrite (respond to the prompt)

As we have explored identity and how it impacts individuals, I want you to consider a part of yours more deeply. Tell me what it means to be a teenager in America today. How would you describe the modern American teenager? What are the good and bad parts about being a teenager? What makes teenagers unique?
