

DUNCAN & GOLDBERG'S DAILY DRILL

Week 1

How to set up your notebook

Each entry should have:

- Full Date
- Entry number
- Title or label
- Completed task

Thursday, January 30, 2020

DDD # 1

Sample item

In order to earn credit, you need to complete the entry. If we are making sentence corrections, you need to copy the original exactly and then SHOW the corrections using proofreading marks.

DDD #1

Fix the punctuation & capitalization

Write the complete sentence and make corrections

1. she shouted smokey come here

2. the dog a black terrier came dashing toward her

3. good boy she said come inside now
smokey

DDD #1

Fix the punctuation & capitalization

Write the complete sentence and make corrections

1. She shouted, "Smokey, come here!"

2. The dog, a black terrier, came dashing toward her.

3. "Good boy," she said, "come inside now smokey."

DDD #2

punctuation

- Add apostrophes where needed. Cross out apostrophes used incorrectly. If the sentence is correct, write Correct. You must write the sentences!

Example: Aunt Elizabeth's dog had to have it's broken leg set by a veterinarian.

1. Perhaps youve marveled at the incredible gymnastic ability of various primate's.
2. Their abilities' are on display in zoo's, animal parks, and, for a few lucky people, in the animals natural habitats.
3. Primate's include lemurs, monkey's, and apes.

DDD #2

punctuation

- Add apostrophes where needed. Cross out apostrophes used incorrectly. If the sentence is correct, write Correct. You must write the sentences!

Example: Aunt Elizabeth's dog had to have it's broken leg set by a veterinarian.

1. Perhaps you've marveled at the incredible gymnastic ability of various primates.
2. Their abilities are on display in zoos, animal parks, and, for a few lucky people, in the animals' natural habitats.
3. Primates include lemurs, monkeys, and apes.